

Westray B. Boyce James R. Nicholas Wed in Maryland

Westray B. Boyce James R. Nicholas Wed in Maryland

Miss Westray Battle Boyce, daughter of Mrs. William Leslie of the Chateau Rochambeau, and James Stacy Boyce of Gastonia, N. C., and James Roy Nicholas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard James Nicholas of Brooklyn, were married in St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church, Poolesville, Md., on Saturday, August ninth, at five o'clock by the Rev. Carter Gilliss. A reception followed at "Valhalla," the home of Col. and Mrs. F. F. Bornsdorff, uncle and aunt of the bride. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a tulle gown with a tight fitted bodice and fan pleated bouffant skirt. Her tulle veil was fastened to a Juliet cap of pointe de Venice lace and she carried a white prayerbook with orchids. Miss Lucia Palmer Bernsdorff, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, in a dress of eyelet embroidered lavender organdy. She wore a wreath of white flowers in her hair and carried a small bouquet of sweetheart roses. Douglas Critchley of New York was best man and Fletcher Bernsdorff was the ring bearer. The bride is a graduate of St. Margaret's Episcopal School, Tappahannock, Va., and was graduated magna cum laude from Sweet Briar College. Her mother, the former Col. Westray Battle Boyce, was director of the WACs during the last half of World War II. Her uncle was the prominent New York attorney, George Gordon Battle. Mr. Nicholas, a native of London, England, was a flight lieutenant and instructor in the Royal Air Force from 1940 to 1948 in South Africa, Malta and the Middle East Desert Command. As a member of the RAF Levies in Iraq, he was a squadron commander. Mr. Nicholas is now in the New York office of the Royal Liverpool Insurance Group where he is chief examiner of its health and accident department.

Wedding information 1952 NY Times